

53 year old presents with slowly progressive loss of vision left eye. Coronal MRI shows enhancing mass (yellow arrow) which turned out to be a meningioma compressing and downwardly displacing the left optic nerve (green arrow). Compare to the normal right optic nerve (red arrow).

